

SUITABLE QUESTIONS TO ASK AS YOU PONDER AND MEDITATE ON GOD'S WORD – THE BIBLE.

Now you may ask, “How will God speak to me when I read the Bible?” It happens when you reflect on each verse you read and also have certain questions in mind and then allow those questions to guide you as you commune with your Lord.

Now some of these questions require an act of obedience; others necessitate a response of faith; and others will result in you wanting to worship and praise the Lord; and finally, some of them will help you discern the subtle devices of our enemy, the devil, and also enable us to understand how Christ’s victory over Satan can become yours.

So here are the questions =

Is there in this verse - a command to obey?

A sin to avoid?

A good example to follow?

A bad example to avoid?

Is there a promise to claim?

Is there a warning to heed?

Is there in this verse a fresh thought about God the Father?

Is there in this verse a fresh thought about God the Son?

Is there in this verse a fresh thought about God the Holy Spirit?
